

Date of posting: August 28, 2018

Company/Employer: Tri-Phase is an environmental and construction company that is based on

Position: Driller-the driller plays an active role in supporting the shop and technician departm

Position description:

Some of the responsibilities include: Working with heavy machinery, skid steers, excavators, heavy trucks. etc. as well as working with regular sized vehicles. Setting up and taking down drilling equipment, carrying tools and equipment such as heavy augers. Knowing when to use specific drilling equipment at the appropriate time, and communicating effectively with other drilling technicians, supervisors and managers.

Experience- Prior field work experience is preferred and working with drilling equipment.

Requirements- Standing for hours at a time, possibly driving long distances, bending, twisting, reaching above shoulders/ head, may be required to kneel or climb.

How to apply:

This is a full-time position. Please send resumes to theresa@triphasegroup.com