

Date of posting: August 28, 2018

Company/Employer: Tri-Phase is an environmental and construction company that is based on Position: Electrician-The electrician plays an active role in supporting the shop department.

Position description:

Responsibilities include, working with heavy machinery, regular sized vehicles, and with electrical components. Checking for diagnosing and repairing electrical components. Working with electrical wiring. Working in a team oriented environment with excellent communication skills. Is an independent worker with attention to detail that can document tasks. Experience with prior skills is preferred as well drilling rigs preferred. Requirements of the job will be standing for hours at a time, possibly driving long distances. Must be comfortable around heavy machinery, working in a loud environment, being exposed to vibrations, exposed to chemicals and contaminants potentially.

How to apply:

This is a full-time position. Please send resumes to theresa@triphasegroup.com